What happened with Holy Trinity

Editorial

S. Basseas, S. Rekoumis

The membership of Holy Trinity is declining with alarming rates after the 1990's. It must consider moving again, for the second time in its long life as the oldest institution in our community. President Demetrios Logothetis together with the Parish Council and Rev. Kaloudis and with the blessing of the then Metropolitan Iakovos started the process in 2006, by first moving the Academy to its new home on Lake Cook Rd. The debt was $6M with a very low interest rate, subsidized by the $200,000 collected from the Chicago Public Schools for leasing the old Socrates School building next to the church. In the first few years, $2.5M of contributions were raised, a new priest Rev. Soterios Malamis was hired to hold services in the auditorium of the new school building, membership increased, the day school enrollment jumped to 170 students (plus 300 students in the evening and Saturday school programs).

Father Kaloudis backtracks, he is afraid of losing control, and progress freezes. Father Soterios was practically pushed out by Fr. Kaloudis, the Metropolitan disagrees but does not stop it. Now, Holy Trinity is navigating in two boats, naturally it sinks. Holy Trinity and the Academy fall apart.

All efforts to avert the situation failed. The Kulis Foundation proposed a debt split of 2/3 for Academy and 1/3 for Holy Trinity and offered to financially help a settlement. Holy Trinity refused. There was a gap of $500 thousand between them and the void in leadership could not bridge it. Again, very recently, Mr. Logothetis, with the full backing from the Foundation for Hellenic Education and Culture puts together a $4M plus $500K offer for the building on Lake Cook. Holy Trinity refused, anticipating more by selling the property to an apartment building developer. This, apparently, without due diligence neither by Holy Trinity nor the Metropolis whether rezoning was possible. Holy Trinity evicts the Academy with the approval of the Metropolis.

The Metropolitan Council continuously demonstrated its ideological bias and always saw this as a rivalry between the church and the "Greek" school. They argue that schools are not ministries of the Church. The "Greek" schools drug the church down from fulfilling its mission in the US, they say. Little they understand, that no one is talking about "Greek" schools any more. It is about good Day Schools under the influence of the Church and our culture, relevant to the success of our students in the US and equally important to the successful future of the church. The other Christian denominations including the Jews do just that.

The building on Lake Cook remains vacant, its value is about half what the Academy offer. The Bank is foreclosing on Holy Trinity.

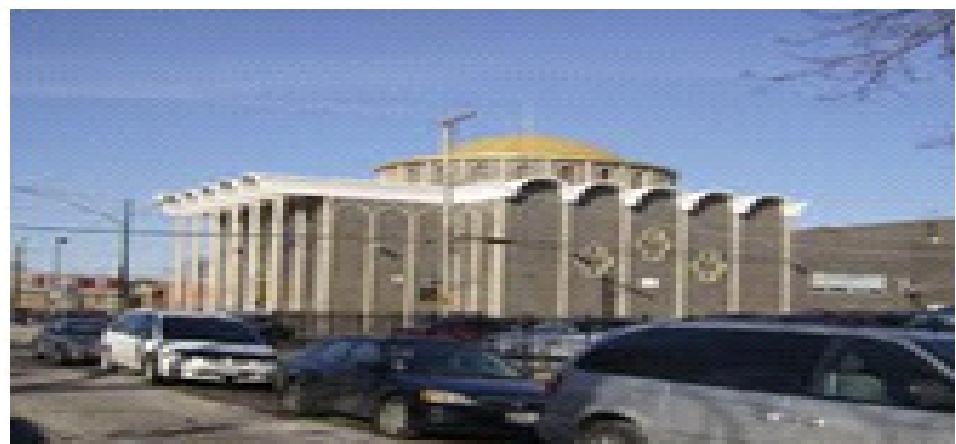

Now, Holy Trinity plays the role of the victim, its supposedly blood drained by the suburbanites who wanted to build a school for their kids. It would have been much easier had the Academy closed, therefore no debt, then Holy Trinity would collect the rent from the school building, perform mostly funerals of the continuously declining membership and collect from trisagia over their graves and wait for the inevitable.

Recently, the new Metropolitan did not stop yet another frivolous act, a suit against the Academy and mainly D. Logothetis for violation of fiduciary duty, hoping to collect $18M from his insurance. Such accusations do not have any legal precedent for non profit organizations. Does the Metropolis understand what kind of flood gates it opens with such a suit? It is not about misappropriation of funds, it is about making decisions when running a non profit future board and them be afraid of punitive damages by a future board, retrospectively, if it does not agree with them. How many of us will be willing to participate in decision making processes involving church institutions? There is no end in sight.

It is depressing to see how the entire community and the future of the Parish was held hostage to a few.

Statement to National Herald by Jim Logothetis

November 30, 2018

My family and I are saddened that the Holy Trinity parish that I served for over 35 years is facing the loss of the church property in Chicago. Many of us realized years ago that due to changing demographics and declines in church attendance and the size of the congregation, the current location in Chicago was not sustainable for the long term. That is why we proposed to move the parish to a new location in the suburbs and extend the life of this historic institution.

The actions that were taken by Holy Trinity, starting back in 2004 with the purchase of the Deerfield property, the transfer of the Socrates School to Deerfield in 2006, and the plans to move Holy Trinity to Deerfield as well, were all undertaken pursuant to a carefully thought-out plan to further the mission of Holy Trinity. Every step of the way, the relevant decisions were approved by the parish council and the general assembly under the leadership of Father George Kaloudis, and the Metropolis. But ultimately, Father Kaloudis decided that he did not want to move Holy Trinity to Deerfield, and an opportunity was lost.

I have not served on the Holy Trinity parish council over the last five years and I was not part of the decisions made, including the reversal of course regarding the transition, that have led to further declines in membership and revenue. It is sad that at the general assembly meeting this past Sunday, even given the most urgent agenda of the possible takeover by the bank, fewer than forty members showed up.

But the act of some, who are apparently now making decisions for Holy Trinity, to file a frivolous lawsuit against me, seeking a scapegoat and a perceived "deep pocket" insurance policy, is simply outrageous. The trumped up theory of the suit is that I had a "conflict of interest" because I was the head of the parish council and also the head of the Academy that acquired the Socrates School and moved it to Deerfield. But there was no conflict of interest. The goals of Holy Trinity and the Academy were the same, as reflected in the Joint Resolution that governed the transfer of the Socrates School to the Academy. Indeed, Father George Kaloudis agreed to have his son Gus Kaloudis, a lawyer, represent both Holy Trinity and the Academy in the various transactions (all fully approved at all levels) associated with the move – which Gus could have not have done had there been a conflict of interest between Holy Trinity and the Academy.

For more than 35 years, I freely gave of my time and money to serve Holy Trinity, contributing thousands of hours and donating or raising millions of dollars. I did so without complaint and without ever taking a dime. It is beyond sad for me personally to be the subject of an ill-considered and groundless lawsuit filed by the church I loved and served. I hope that under the leadership of our new Metropolitan Nathanael, the parish will withdraw this frivolous suit and focus on a constructive plan for moving forward to serve the congregation. But if the suit is not withdrawn, I will defend the suit vigorously in court and I expect to prevail and to obtain sanctions because the suit is without any legal merit. I will do what I need to do to defend my reputation and protect my family, for whom the church has been the center of our lives, from baseless attacks.

What is the real meaning of Christmas?

For many, Christmas is the time to think of Jesus Christ as a baby in a manger. While the birth of Christ is a special and miraculous event, it isn't the primary focus. The central truth of the Christmas story is this: the Child of Christmas is God. Christmas is not about the Savior's infancy; it is about His deity. The humble birth of Jesus Christ was never intended to conceal the reality that God was becoming born into the world.

But the modern world's version of Christmas does just that. And consequently for the greater part of humanity, Christmas has no legitimate meaning at all.

I don't suppose anyone can ever fathom what it means for God to be born in a manger. How does one explain the Almighty stooping to become a tiny infant? Our minds cannot begin to understand what was involved in God's becoming man. Nor can anyone explain how God could become a baby. Yet He did. Without forsaking His divine nature or diminishing His deity, He was born into our world as a tiny infant.

He was fully human, with all the needs and emotions that are common to us all. Yet He was also fully God—all wise and all powerful.

For nearly 2,000 years, debate has been raging about who Jesus really is. Cults and skeptics have offered various explanations. They'll say He is one of many gods, a created being, a high angel, a good teacher, a prophet, and so on. The common thread of all such theories is that they make Jesus less than God. But the biblical evidence is overwhelming that this child in the manger was the incarnation of God.

One passage in particular, written by the apostle Paul, captures the essence of Jesus' divine nature and underscores the truths that make Christmas truly wonderful.

"He is the image of the invisible God, the first born of all creation. For . . . all things have been created by Him and for Him. And He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together. He is also head of the body, the church; and He is the beginning, the first born from the dead; so that He Himself might come to have first place in everything. For it was the Father's good pleasure for all the fullness to dwell in Him, and through Him to reconcile all things to Himself, having made peace through the blood of His cross."

Ironically, some of the cults that deny Jesus' deity suggest, for example, that the phrase "the image of the invisible God" hints that Jesus was merely a created being who bore the image of God in the same sense as all humanity. But the truth is though we were created in God's likeness, we only resemble Him. Jesus, on the other hand, is God's exact image.

The Greek word translated "image" means a perfect replica, a precise copy, a duplicate. Paul was saying that God Himself is fully manifest in the Person of His Son, who is none other than Jesus Christ. He is the exact image of God. Jesus Himself said, "He who has seen Me has seen the Father."

Scripture repeatedly says that God is invisible. But through Christ the invisible God has been made visible. God's full likeness is revealed in Him. Colossians 1:19 takes the truth a step further: "It was the Father's good pleasure for all the fullness to dwell in Him." He is not just an outline of God; He is fully God. Colossians 2:9 is even more explicit: "In Him all the fullness of Deity dwells in bodily form." Nothing is lacking. No attribute is absent. He is God in the fullest possible sense, the perfect image.

In Colossians 1:15 Paul says Jesus is "the first born of all creation." Those who reject the deity of Christ have made much of that phrase, assuming it means Jesus was a created being. But the word translated "first born" describes Jesus' rank, not His origin. The first-born in a Hebrew family was the heir, the ranking one, the one who had the right of inheritance. And in a royal family, he had the right to rule. So Christ is the One who inherits all creation and the right to rule over it. It doesn't mean He was born first in order, for He wasn't.

Christ is not part of creation; He is the Creator, the very arm of God, active from the beginning in calling the universe and all creatures into existence. John 1:3 says, "All things came into being by Him, and apart from Him nothing came into being that has come into being." That could not be true if He were Himself a created being. Hebrews 1:2 also identifies Christ as the Creator. Christ was the Person of the Trinity through whom the world was made and for whom it was fashioned. The size of the universe is incomprehensible. Who made all that? Some scientists say there was this big explosion that eventually formed a primordial swamp, and ... Science cannot explain it. God created it all. Who? The babe in Bethlehem. He made everything.

The chance that any one man fulfilled just 48 of the above prophecies would be 1 in 10^{157} . This really is an extremely large number and represents an extremely small chance that the prophecies did not have divine origin! Therefore, the textual history of the Holy Scriptures and prophecy provide positive, irrefutable proof that the Holy Scriptures are astonishingly accurate and divine prophecy points to the Lord Jesus Christ as the Savior of mankind.

Κυβερνητικές πηγές: Οι αλλαγές στο Σύνταγμα της ΠΓΔΜ ανταποκρίνονται στο γράμμα της συμφωνίας των Πρεσπών

Κυβερνητικές πηγές σχολιάζοντας τα τελικά σχέδια τροπολογιών του Συντάγματος της ΠΓΔΜ, που κατέθεσε σήμερα ο πρωθυπουργός της ΠΓΔΜ Ζόραν Ζάεφ τόνισαν:

Στο πλέον επίμαχο σημείο, δηλαδή στην παράγραφο 3 του άρθρου 49, η νέα διατύπωση που αναφέρεται στη «diaspora» (ομογένεια) είναι αντίστοιχη με τις ανάλογες ρυθμίσεις του άρθρου 108 του ελληνικού Συντάγματος.

Ως εκ τούτου, ανταποκρίνεται στο

πνεύμα και το γράμμα της συμφωνίας των Πρεσπών, της οποίας, πλέον, η πορεία εφαρμογής συνεχίζεται. Οι όποιες, τουλάχιστον απυχείς, δηλώσεις του πρωθυπουργού της ΠΓΔΜ (τις οποίες ανακάλεσε τονίζοντας την προσήλωσή του στο άρθρο 4(3)), έγιναν προφανώς για εσωτερικές σκοπιμότητες προκειμένου να εξασφαλίσει την επαρκή στήριξη στη συμφωνία, αλλά η προσήλωσή του στη Συμφωνία των Πρεσπών παραμένει.

Όπως τόνισαν οι ίδιες πηγές, η εξέλιξη αυτή αποδεικνύει επίσης ότι η συμφωνία περιλαμβάνει αποτελεσματικές δικλείδες ασφαλείας οι οποίες, σε συνδυασμό με στοχευμένες παρεμβάσεις της ελληνικής πλευράς αλλά και της διεθνούς κοινότητας, δεν αφήνουν περιθώρια οποιασδήποτε παρερμηνείας. Πιο συγκεκριμένα, στην τέταρτη τροπολογία του Συντάγματος της ΠΓΔΜ αναφέρονται τα εξής:

«1. Η Πολιτεία προστατεύει, εγγυάται και καλλιεργεί τις ιδιαιτερότητες, την ιστορική και την πολιτιστική κληρονομιά του μακεδονικού λαού.

2. Η Πολιτεία προστατεύει τα δικαιώματα και τα συμφέροντα των υπηκόων της που ζουν ή διαμένουν στο εξωτερικό.

3. Η Πολιτεία μεριμνά για τη διασπορά του μακεδονικού λαού και τη διασπορά των άλλων (εθνικών) κοινοτήτων καλλιεργεί και προωθεί τους δεσμούς τους με την πατρίδα.

4. Επ' αυτού, η Πολιτεία δεν θα αναμειγνύεται στα κυριαρχικά δικαιώματα άλλων κρατών και στις εσωτερικές τους υποθέσεις».

Με τις τροποποιήσεις αυτές, απαλείφεται από το Σύνταγμα της χώρας το άρθρο 49, το οποίο σήμερα αναφέρει ότι «η Πολιτεία μεριμνά για τη θέση και τα δικαιώματα των ανηκόντων στον μακεδονικό λαό που ζουν στις γειτονικές χώρες». Πηγή: ΑΠΕ - ΜΠΕ
